2009 CAMP SESSIONS

Wayne State University,

located in the heart of the Cultural Center of Detroit, MI, will host this NIKE Girls Basketball Camp. The

WSU main campus, which encompasses 203 acres is a great location for young campers to fine-tune their basketball skills.

Shooting & Ball Handling Camp: This three day program is intended to help players, ages 8-16, develop athletically. This camp format is a great opportunity for young basketball players looking to develop and refine their fundamental basketball skills of shooting and ball handling in a positive and well-organized learning environment.

CAMP DIRECTOR

Gloria Bradley, Head Women's Basketball Coach at Wayne State University, is the camp director. Entering her ninth season, Coach Bradley has taken huge steps towards building a winning foundation at Wayne State. During the 2002-2003 season, WSU posted a 17-12 record, earned a seventh consecutive berth to the GLIAC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals in 2008. Prior to coming to WSU, Gloria spent seven seasons at the helm of the Montclair State Women's Basketball Program, where she compiled a 114-69 record (.623), which included three Eastern College Athletic Conference Championships (1994, 1997, 1999), one New Jersey Athletic Conference title (1995) and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1995. A graduate of Seton Hall University, Bradley was a four-year letterwinner for the Pirates in basketball where she was named First Team All-Big East Conference and New Jersey Player of the Year in 1984.
