U.S.S.C. proudly presents the Nike Lacrosse Camp at Salisbury University, a complete skills program designed for girls ages 8-17. Our goal is to stimulate a love for the game of lacrosse by immersing you in the sport and giving you the kind of focused, intensive training essential to improvement. Over the course of camp, your enthusiasm and self-confidence will grow along with your skills.

CAMP DIRECTOR

Jim Nestor is entering his seventh year as the Head Coach for Women's Lacrosse at Salisbury University. Over the past four years the women's lacrosse team has ranked among the nation's elite. The 2007 Sea Gulls were no different as they broke school-record after school-record en route to arguably one the greatest seasons in the program's history.

Salisbury advanced to the national championship game for only the second time in school history where they finished as runner-up to Franklin & Marshall. In 2006, the Sea Gulls enjoyed their second straight 17 win season and advanced to the NCAA Regional Championship game. The 2005 season was arguably the best in school's history as Nestor led the team to a 17-1 record, including a conference championship and the team's fifth berth into the NCAA tournament. The team advanced to the NCAA championship game and finished second to the College of New Jersey. SU finished the year ranked first in the Atlantic region and second in the nation.

Nestor, who also coaches the Salisbury women's soccer team, is a 1990 graduate of the University who returned to his alma mater after serving as the head coach for both women's lacrosse and women's soccer at Division II Gannon University in Erie, PA for six years.

CAMP SETTING

Salisbury University, located on Maryland's beautiful eastern shore, 30 miles west of Ocean City and two hours from both Baltimore and Wilmington, DE, remains a Nike Lacrosse camp favorite for many.
