Sacred Heart University, a member of the Division I Northeast Conference (NEC), is proud to offer a NIKE Girls Basketball Camp for a tenth straight summer!

Complete Skills: This five day program is a great place for any young basketball player who is looking to develop and refine their fundamental basketball skills. Emphasis is placed on fundamental development, team play, and more.

Post: This program concentrates on low and high post play. Emphasis is placed upon low post offensive moves, defensive post play, and other specialized techniques that can improve your post play.

Perimeter: This program is designed to concentrate on the perimeter game. Emphasis is placed on perimeter play, including offensive moves, shooting, ball handling, footwork, and defense.

Camp Director

Ed Swanson took the reigns of the Sacred Heart University women’s basketball program in 1990 and has built the Pioneers into one of the top teams in the Northeast Conference and throughout the Northeast region. Swanson’s career has seen the veteran coach eclipse the 300 career victories mark on the road to a pair of NEC Championships and earned him the honor of being inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame this fall.

Beginning his 21st season on the Sacred Heart bench, Swanson has built the Pioneers into one of the top teams year in and year out in the NEC and is coming off a season where he led SHU to a perfect run through the league and the program’s second conference title in the last four years. The Pioneers posted just the third perfect 18-0 mark in NEC history last year earning the head coach his third NEC Coach of the Year award. Over the past 14 seasons, the Pioneers have posted at least a .500 record or better under Swanson, a run that has included five 20 win seasons. Last season’s magical run included a pair of coaching milestones as Swanson moved past former Mount St. Mary’s head coach Bill Sheahan (124) in all-time NEC history last year earning the head coach his third NEC Coach of the Year award.
